Welcome to the historic seaside town of Brigus

Brigus, Newfoundland's heritage settlement. Pioneers from England, Ireland and Wales settled here 400 years ago. By 1847 Brigus had become a major sea going port. Today, as you stroll Brigus through the tapestry of stone walls and winding streets, you are reminded of an era long past but not lost. A variety of sites to capture your imagination. The majesty of historic churches and homes built 200 years ago are captured in a picture perfect setting. The Vindicator, where a turn of the century, newspaper was printed or the Orange Jubilee the meeting place of the "Merchant Princes of Brigus".

.... Many stories, history and unique way of life await you in Brigus.

The Brigus Blueberry festival, a favorite event that takes place annually the second weekend of August.

HOW TO GET HERE
Brigus is located in Conception Bay, on Route 60, about 80 km west of St. John’s. From the TCH (Route 1) take Exit 31 to Route 70, then Roache’s Line Exit to Route 60. Or from St. John’s follow Route 60 West (slower, but more scenic!)
